

Protect Your Family

The problem is that most of us have no idea what family means. If we did we would never treat the families we have the way we do. Think about it, most of the people in this country claim to be Christians, Jews or Muslims. Each of these believe in Torah (the first 5 books of the Old Testament; and, Torah says marriage is made by agreement between the spouses to be combined with the consent of the father of the bride. Neither Torah nor the Bible give an account of any other necessity. That's it.

Therefore, if you have agreement between the spouses to be and consent of the bride's father, you have what is known as a "lawful marriage". Most of the churches though, teach that you must have a legal and lawful marriage. Legal (in this case) means the marriage is recorded (written). In the past people accomplished this by recording the marriage in their family bible or otherwise in their private records. Most churches also tell you that you have to go get a marriage license from the "state" before the minister will marry you. Now, I ask you, "Where did all of that come from?" If the minister was teaching from God's gospel, why then does he tell you to do something so far beyond or foreign to God's will? Wouldn't such a requirement give the state control over the church, which thing is forbidden in the national Constitution? Where in the national or State constitutions did the people give government such power? On review you will find that the people never gave such power to government. So why would an honorable minister make such a requirement of the people in his church?

The answer is, he is either ignorant of the truth or he is no servant of our Father in Heaven. His ignorance was likely caused by his education. Otherwise, why would he tell you to go to "The State of 'X'" to get a marriage license? "The State of 'X'" is a private corporation owned outright by the corporation known as "The United States Government" (Corp. U.S.), which is owned outright by, "The International Monetary Fund" (IMF). License means permission to do that which would be otherwise illegal. Where God instituted marriage between man and woman, giving man His authority to so unite by mans agreement and consent, why would a man of God tell you to go to a private foreign corporation to obtain by license that which you already have a right to by your natural birth? He wouldn't, if he knew what he was doing. After all, weren't you also fooled?

The fact that you ask for a marriage license admits that you are incompetent to be otherwise married. The license does not remove your alleged incompetence, it merely legally transfers the responsibility (ownership) of anything you create in the marriage to the party that issued the license. In Law the doctrine is called "Parens Patria", which transliterates to, "the state is the parent". That is why Social Services is running rampant with controls alleging they have the right to control your children, to prescribe/administer drugs/contraceptives/etc. to them without your knowledge or consent and even the power to take them from you at will, even over your objection. In fact, if you refuse they can have you arrested. That is also why they have you fill out paperwork listing yourself as "parent/guardian" and for all intents and purposes, you are not the parent, you are only the guardian.

As guardian you send the children to public school where they are educated by the school in the latest drug techniques in Corp. U.S.'s D.A.R.E. program (translated directly from Hitler's children of the fatherland program). Think about it, they admit the program was designed to break the peer pressure group of the children. Have you ever noticed the peer group of a school child is the family. Then notice that D.A.R.E. stands for Drug Abuse Resistance Education. Break down those words and notice their meaning:

1. Before being trained in that program most children have no Drug experience whatsoever. So the program teaches them what the planned program for understanding what drugs are.
2. Again, the child has no past experience with Drug Abuse; so to understand the training the child must create its understanding by relating what they learn to themselves, in the future. It's like when a parent says, "Don't touch the walls." In our minds (everyone's not just the child's) we hear the whole message in command form; presupposing that the wall has not yet been touched; and notice the mind cannot form the reverse of an idea so to understand the command we must form its image as a future event; and, there it is; so we tell ourselves "Don't". Now, notice what almost every single child does, almost immediately, after receiving such a command—they touch the wall! Notice the D.A.R.E. program's motto, "Don't use drugs."
3. Then add Resistance and notice that resistance implies a will to participate that must be fought off even though it never really wins over the desire.
4. Now add Education, and realize that that is their point. Most teachers and school officials involved in the program have no idea what they are compelled to do by their school systems, that being: they are teaching the children to use and abuse drugs.

Their final blow in support of the system, is that in their parents patria capacity their distribution system for Ritalin—the most powerful speed (crank) on the market—places these innocent children right in the middle of the drug world. Use of nearly any amount of Ritalin causes overdose, which is the desired effect of the drug—that is exactly why it has a calming effect on an otherwise very active child.

The school system argues, "Children perform better when they are on the drug and children are uncontrollable when they are not on the drug." The truth is without the drug, the students are simply learning faster and better than the teacher knows how to teach. Memory is state based. That means when you learn something, all you have to do is go back into the same state you were in when you learned it and recall is almost automatic. The school causes this to happen by overdosing the child into a stupor during both the learning phase and again through the testing phase. Tests show the students perform well that way—the problem is that if they aren't on the drug they remember little of what they were taught. The D.A.R.E. program is: Teach them to resist drugs then feed drugs to them while breaking the child away from the family. That means the child needs a new family—the gang—their "friends" going through the same mold; people they understand. The facts are in. This is an accurate statement of the results of this program, the system calls it, "The new Drug Culture". Still, most Americans allow this to happen to their children.

I have to agree, if you fall into this trap and do nothing to end it, you must be 'only the guardians' of your children, because if you were God's children and you had the ability to procreate in God's image, creating children of your own you would never allow a corporation like Corp. U.S. or the IMF to take your children away from you and pay them a tax that you don't owe; so they can murder 40,000,000 pre-birth infants because this new culture does not want them but they do want to play without consequence. It is time to awaken to your true natures as descendant heirs of Adam and Eve and to be accountable for our families.

How do you protect your family?

You notice that there is no signature on the alleged Marriage License. Signature is defined as knowing willing consent. If you were not aware that the state attempting to issue you a license to marry was actually a private corporation within Corp. U.S., which is a private corporation owned by the IMF, and if you were not aware that they created the program for the purpose of removing from you your natural parental rights, if they did this without disclosure of the facts to you, then you could not have possibly signed the licensing documents. In other words what you thought was your signature does not fit the qualifying limitation of what a signature is. That means you could not possibly be married under such a license. However, if you had agreement between you and your spouse to be, and consent from the father of the bride, when you went to alleged state, you were already married before you went to them. Our WARN newsletter has complete descriptions of how to eliminate any appearance of such licensed marriages such that Corp. U.S. has to recognize that your children are in fact your children and that they do not belong to the state in any manner.

Next you need to take responsibility for educating your children your selves. Corp. U.S. has no idea of how to teach children of God and they have no intention of doing so; that should be obvious. The people have consistently proven that home school and private education systems are far superior to public education. Every test of home schooled children shows they are better educated than publicly schooled children.

The bottom line is you must make your own decisions; and you must do it now, before it is too late! If you don't, there will be no second chances. Time's up.
